

Georgia Allman Brothers Band Association

GABBAFest 2010

“Preserving the Legacy”

September 17-19, 2010

At the Cox Capitol and the Big House in Macon Georgia

Featuring:

- The Toler-Townsend Band, featuring former ABB and Dickey Betts & Great Southern guitarist “Dangerous Dan” Toler and Johnny Townsend, formerly of the Sanford- Townsend Band Friday night, September 17th at the Cox Capitol in Macon.
- The Established Unknown opens on Friday night, featuring Pedre Arevalo, former bassist for Dickey Betts & Great Southern.
- Blues great Tinsley Ellis headlines - on Saturday night September 18th at the Cox Capitol in Macon.
- Lingo opens Saturday night.

Activities for the Weekend include:

- Members Jam at the Big House on Saturday, event open to everyone– come listen to some great music,. Want to play? Bring your instrument and join GABBA – $15 per year membership.
- Friday night aftershow at the historic Grant’s Lounge, free entry with GABBAfest laminate.
- Saturday night aftershow at the Hummingbird, featuring Big Mike and the Booty Papas, free entry with GABBAfest laminate.
- Gabby Award Presentation
- Silent and Live auction items
- ‘Almost cut my Hair’ to benefit Locks of Love – Long hairs take note, we need volunteers...

Sunday afternoon tree planting and dedication at Rose Hill Cemetery, followed by GABBA cemetery cleanup.

Ticket information and schedule of events coming soon.

Check out our Web Site for the latest details www.gabba.org or look for us on facebook.

Disclaimer: Things are subject to change, after all this is Rock and Roll.